

Roger B. McGinnis Heads Paradise Community Group

Roger B. McGinnis, former resident of Torrance and student of the local high school, has been named secretary-manager of the Paradise and Allied Communities Chamber of Commerce located in Butte county in northern California. He is scheduled to take over active management about May 8th.

McGinnis, captain of the first championship football team at Torrance High in 1934, graduated from Torrance in 1935 and attended junior college in Riverside where he played football for two years.

For the past year, he has been editor of the Paradise Post, weekly newspaper of the northern community. He has been active in several organizations there including the Kiwanis club,

W. E. Wohlfahrt Serving With Army In Japan

Private William E. Wohlfahrt of Akron, Ohio, is serving with the famed fighting First Cavalry Division which is on occupation duty in the prefectures of the Tokyo-Yokohama area. The First Cavalry Division fought all the way from Australia in the Pacific campaign of World War II and was first in Manila and first in Tokyo.

Overseas since December 1946, Private Wohlfahrt is serving with Headquarters Troop, 2nd Squadron of the 12th Cavalry Regiment as a jeep driver.

Private Wohlfahrt, a former student of Garfield high school, was employed as a grocery store clerk in civilian life. He entered the army in September 1946, and received basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama. After being discharged from the army he plans to return to school under the benefits of the G.I. Bill of Rights.

His mother, Mrs. Paul Huber, resides at Torrance.

Harbor Hills Youth On Duty In Kyoto, Japan

Private First Class Gene Rogers of Lomita, California, has found an interesting job with the Army of Occupation in Japan in the Government and Legal Section of the Kinki Military Government Regional Headquarters in Kyoto, Japan, where he works as a clerk.

This section takes care of any of the various important problems that arise in the directing of the affairs of the Military Teams that make up the agendas for the people under their jurisdiction.

PFC Rogers enlisted into the army in June, 1946, and after completing Coastal Artillery training at Fort Bliss, Texas, was shipped for overseas in October, 1946. Prior to his enlistment he graduated from the Narbonne High School in Lomita in early June, 1946.

He is the son of Mrs. Bethel C. Rogers, of 126 Harbor Hills in Lomita.

BOBBY SOX By Marty Links

"The way to a man's heart may be through his stomach—but how do you go about meeting one to invite him over for dinner?"

Greatness is a spiritual condition worthy to excite love, interest, and admiration; and the outward proof of possessing greatness is, that we excite love, interest, and admiration.—Matthew Arnold.

Temple Menorah Sisterhood To Honor Mothers

A special Sabbath Service will be held on Friday evening, May 9, at 8:15 p. m., at Temple Menorah, 112 1/2 N. Catalina ave., Redondo Beach. The Sisterhood will observe Mother's Day by participating in the service in addition to Rabbi Wm. H. Rosenblatt, who will lead the congregational singing. It was announced by Mrs. Mitchell Kanter, Sisterhood president; that it is a tradition in the Western Region of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods to observe the Sabbath closest to Mother's Day and that in these days when we are trying to rebuild the peace of the world we need to emphasize the importance of the integrity of our family life. The special speaker for this occasion will be Mrs. Irving Frankel, president of the Young Matrons Group of Temple Israel of Long Beach.

Following are the members conducting the service: Mrs. M. Kanter, president, introductory; Mrs. I. H. Graneli, kindling of the Sabbath Lights; Mrs. Wm. Sloan, invocation; Sisterhood prayer. Reading of the Sabbath

Cited For Zone Law Violation

The City Planning Commission has filed a complaint against Sol Burns, owner of Pacific Waste Products Co., 1890 Torrance blvd., for violation of a zoning restriction. Burns was denied a request for a zoning variance, it was reported, but established his salvage business at that location despite the denial.

Burns pleaded not guilty to the complaint and was released on $50 bail, pending a hearing, tentatively set for May 29.

Servicemen, Mrs. R. Rosensweig, Mrs. S. Katz, Mrs. J. Meyer, Mrs. J. Beck, Scripture reading, the Ideal Mother; Mrs. E. L. Neu, Benediction. Mr. and Mrs. M. Goldenson and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reich will represent the parents and grand-parents of the congregation and will receive the tribute from the children of the religious school: Jerry Sweedler, Betty Goldenson, and Charles Shupps.

Allan B. Shupps, president of the South Bay Jewish Community Center, will have an announcement of special interest to the members of the congregation. A social hour and entertainment will follow. Refreshments will be served. All Jewish families are cordially invited to attend.
